EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

[illegible] to Explain.

Boston, Sept. 29.—Gen. Butler explains his note to Kellogg recently published by saying he was engaged in an argument before the Supreme Court to argue against granting the petition of the McEnery party to have Kellogg prohibited from taking [illegible] of the State Government and to prohibit Judge Durell from taking any further step in the [illegible] this Court. The case was argued and decided before it got into Congress. When Congress adjourned Butler wrote the note to Kellogg asking for his fees and putting a value upon his services which he thought they deserved. Kellogg wrote a reply saying it was all a personal matter of his own, that the expenses had been very heavy, and asking Butler if he would consider him in the matter and enclosing a check for one thousand dollars.

"Desperately Short."

New York, Sept. 29.—The Tribune of to-day has the following: New Orleans, Sept. 29.—The following is a copy of Senator Carpenter's letter to Gov. Kellogg:

OREGON LEGISLATURE.

EIGHTH BIENNIAL SESSION.

[Reported Expressly for the Oregonian.]

Senate—Morning Session.

SALEM, Sept. 30, 1874.

Senate met at the usual hour and was called to order by the President.

The session was opened with prayer by Rev. I. D. Driver, of Salem.

Mr. Cornell absent.

Journal was read and approved.

On motion of Mr. HIRSCH the vote by which S. B. No. 13, the State University bill, was ordered engrossed, was reconsidered.

Mr. HIRSCH explained that the vote taken on yesterday on the motion to amend the motion to refer the bill to a special committee, by instructing them to strike out the appropriating clause of the bill was misapprehended by many of the Senators, they thinking that the question was directly to strike that clause out of the bill.

Mr. BRISTOW then moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Education with instructions to strike out the appropriating clause in the bill.

Mr. DOLPH moved to amend by instructing the Committee on Engrossment to return the bill without engrossment, which amendment was accepted by Mr. Bristow.

Mr. MYERS said that the bill had been engrossed already and that the Committee had instructed him to report to that effect, which he thereupon did and handed in the report with the engrossed bill to the Clerk.

Mr. DOLPH insisted on his motion to instruct the Committee to return the bill without engrossment.

Mr. MYERS said that the bill had already been reported correctly engrossed by the Committee.

Mr. HIRSCH said that the vote by which the bill had been ordered engrossed had been reconsidered, and that although the committee may have done the clerical work of engrossing the bill, that so far as the Senate was concerned the bill was not now engrossed.

Mr. MYERS said the bill was not in the hands of the Senate, unless by virtue of the report made by the Engrossing Committee.

Mr. TOWNSEND said that the report made by Mr. Myers was out of order and that the bill was still in the hands of the Committee and subject to the orders of the Senate.

The CHAIR said the only question was whether the vote to reconsider would bring the bill into the hands of the Senate.

Mr. DOLPH said that Mr. Townsend was correct, that the report made by Mr. Myers was out of order, and the motion by which the bill had been ordered engrossed having been reconsidered, that so far as the Senate was concerned the bill was not engrossed, and that the only thing the committee could do under the circumstances was simply to return the original bill to the Senate.

Mr. WATSON said he thought the friends of the bill were willing to have the appropriating clause of the bill stricken out, and thought it might be done by unanimous consent.

Mr. MYERS by consent withdrew the report of the Committee on Engrossed Bills.

The question being on the reference of the bill to the Committee on Education with instructions to strike out the appropriating clause, the motion prevailed and the bill was so referred.

Mr. DOLPH moved to reconsider the vote by which S. B. No. 27, the bill repealing the act empowering Assessors to assess bank deposits, was lost. The motion was lost by a vote of 11 to 16.

Mr. BRISTOW, from the Committee on Education, reported back the University Bill with the appropriation clause stricken out pursuant to instructions.

On motion the report was adopted and the bill was ordered engrossed and read third time to-morrow.

Mr. VAN CLEAVE asked the condition of the invitation from the Asylum for the Blind to visit that institution.

The Chair said that there had been no order made in regard to it, whereupon Mr. VAN CLEAVE moved that the invitation be accepted, which motion prevailed.

On motion of Mr. RICHARDSON a committee of three, with Mr. Clark as chairman, was appointed to visit that institution, as it appeared that the rooms were not sufficiently large to receive the whole Senate. The Chair appointed as such committee Messrs. Clark, Dolph and Myers.

Leave of absence was granted to Mr. Hirsch until to-morrow afternoon.

On motion of Mr. HERREN the report of the Committee on Military Affairs on the Modoc War Bill was taken from the table.

On motion the report was adopted, but the vote adopting it was afterward reconsidered on the suggestion of Mr. Engle that the Committee had reported several amendments to the bill which an adoption of their report would incorporate in the bill.

The amendments reported by the Committee were then read by the Clerk and pending their adoption the Senate adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

Senate resumed at 2 o'clock.

The Chair announced the question before the Senate to be on the adoption of the report of the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. TOWNSEND moved to amend by saying that the report be accepted, which prevailed, and the motion as amended was carried.

The amendments proposed by the committee were then adopted by separate votes.

On motion of Mr. WATSON the bill was ordered engrossed and read third time to-morrow.

A motion of Mr. BRISTOW to take S. B. No. 16 from the table was lost.

The bill providing for the incorporation of the town of Ashland, in Jackson county, was taken from the table and was ordered engrossed and read a third time to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. WISDOM the bill incorporating the town of Baker City was also taken from the table and was ordered engrossed for a third reading.

The bill to amend the game law was taken from the table and on motion of Mr. VAN CLEAVE was recommitted to the Game Committee which had the bill under consideration before.

S. J. M. No. 1 was taken from the table and Mr. BRISTOW by consent withdrew the same.

The bill repealing the act providing for the payment of traveling expenses of the Judges of the Supreme Court was taken from the table.

Mr. DOLPH moved the bill be made the special order for the 30th day of October next.

The yeas and nays being called for the vote stood:

Yeas—Brady, Clark, Dolph, Hannah, Lee, Myers, Smith, Tolin, Vancleave, Watson, Webster, Wisdom, Witham—13.

Nays—Barnes, Bristow, Crystal, Engle, Goodman, Haley, Herren, Jewett, Munkers, Olfield, Owens, Richardson, Savage, Townsend, Mr. President—15.

So the motion was lost.

A motion of Mr. ENGLE to lay the bill on the table was lost.

On motion of Mr. BRISTOW the bill was ordered engrossed and read third time to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. DOLPH the bill providing for a State Board of Equalization was taken from the table. The Chair stated that the question would be on the motion to indefinitely postpone, which was pending when the bill was tabled.

A motion of Mr. VAN CLEAVE to refer the bill to the Committee on Ways and Means was lost.

Mr. TOWNSEND having been called to the chair, Mr. COCHRAN moved to refer the bill to the Committee on Retrenchment and Reform.

The motion was discussed at considerable length by Messrs. Owens, Myers, Cochran and Webster, for, and by Dolph, Watson and Barnes, against. The motion was lost.

The question recurring on the motion to indefinitely postpone, the vote stood: yeas 21, nays [illegible].

A message from the House announced that the House had adopted H. J. R. 12, requesting the State Geologist to make a report of progress made and state his plans for future work.

On motion the Senate concurred in the adoption of the resolution.

A message from the House announced that the House had adopted H. J. M. No. 3, praying Congress to make an appropriation of $25,000 for the improvement of the Yamhill river; also that the House had adopted H. J. M. No. 4, praying Congress to make an appropriation for the sufferers from the depredations of the Modoc Indians.

The Senate concurred in H. J. M. Nos. 3 and 4.

The Senate adjourned.

House—Morning Session.

The House met at the usual hour, the Speaker in the chair.

Prayer was offered by Rev. T. T. Rowland.

A message from the Senate was read stating that that body had adopted H. J. M. No. 1, in reference to the improvement of the Coquille river; also H. J. R. No. 7, for a Joint Committee on Railroads; also S. J. R. No. 11: Resolved by the Senate, the House concurring, That the Joint Committee on Joint Rules be instructed to report an amendment to the Joint Rules providing for the reading of messages from the other House at the time of receiving the same or as soon thereafter as practicable; also that H. J. R. No. 10, providing for the appointment of a Joint Committee to ascertain whether any moneys had been paid out of the State Treasury without authority of law, had been considered by that body and laid on the table; that the Senate had adopted S. J. R. No. 32, authorizing the Joint Committee of the two houses to employ an expert to serve during the present session of the Legislature with a compensation not exceeding five dollars per day, and also to report a bill fixing the compensation of State Printer.

Mr. STEEN moved the adoption of S. J. R. No. 11. Carried.

On motion of Mr. RIDDLE, moved the adoption of S. J. R. No. 12.

S. B. No. 5, fixing the times of holding the terms of County Court in Union county, S. B. No. 3[illegible], to provide a uniform course of public instruction, and S. B. No. 20, to repeal the act providing for the appointment of a State Geologist, were read first time.

Mr. STEEN presented the following memorial:

Be it remembered that at a regular session of the State Grange of Oregon Patrons of Husbandry, begun and held in the city of Salem on the 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th and 19th of September, A. D. 1874, the following among other proceedings were had, that is to say, it was

Resolved, That, appreciating the great importance of the P. D. & S. L. R. R. as a measure intended to open the Columbia river to free and cheap transportation, give outlet to the seaboard for the agricultural products of the vast interior of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, and establish an artery of commercial intercourse between the Pacific Northwest and the Atlantic states and Europe, and appreciating the valuable and praiseworthy efforts of those engaged in forwarding the great enterprise, we commend it heartily to the fostering care of the Legislature of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, that [illegible] may have such necessary and constitutional aid as the circumstances may seem to require, always guarding with a vigilant eye all infringement upon the public welfare and legislative control.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the State Grange of Oregon [illegible].
(Signed) J. [illegible] SMITH,
Sec. [illegible] S. G. of [illegible]

On motion of Mr. GALLOWAY the memorial was laid on the table.

Mr. MAYS presented the petition of [illegible] Warren and others representing that, in view of the fact that the appropriation made by the last Legislative Assembly for the Dalles and [illegible] wagon road is confined to the proceeds of the swamp and overflowed lands belonging to the State, [illegible] and in view of the fact that the completion of the road contemplated [illegible] by every principle of justice, we respectfully pray your honorable body to so change the said act of Oct. [illegible] on the bonds to be issued for said work.

The petition was referred to the Committee on Roads and Highways.

Mr. BUTLER presented the petition of citizens of Independence, praying for the incorporation of that town, which was referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Mr. REED presented the memorial of Mrs. Victor calling attention to the general ignorance in the Eastern States concerning Oregon, the importance of doing something to dispel that ignorance and asking an appropriation of $[illegible] to assist in the publication and circulation of her book "All over Oregon and Washington."

On motion of Mr. BRADSHAW the resolution was laid on the table.

Mr. BRADSHAW offered H. J. M. No. [illegible]:

Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, most respectfully represent that the Yamhill river, a tributary of the Willamette river of this State, runs a distance of some [illegible] through one of the finest agricultural districts of the Willamette valley, and the farmers in said districts are greatly dependent on the navigation of said river for the shipment of grain and other products to market. Your memorialists further represent that said river at low stage of water is for a few miles obstructed with shoals and rapids, preventing the passage of boats that [illegible] navigate said river for a portion of the year to the distance of [illegible] and for some nine miles of that distance now [illegible] free for boats at all seasons of the year, and a large amount of freight daily passes over said distance.

The memorial was on motion of Mr. BRADSHAW adopted.

Mr. VAN [illegible] offered H. J. M. No. [illegible]: To the Honorable the Congress of the United States: Your memorialists would most respectfully represent that during the fall and winter of 1872 the tribe of Indians known as the Modocs and their wandering allies from other tribes belonging to the Klamath Indian Agency in Southern Oregon took up arms in open hostility to the unsuspecting and unprotected settlers in Southern Oregon and more especially in Southeastern Oregon and destroyed the lives of many families indiscriminately and the property as well as the lives of all with whom they came in contact. The property destroyed by these fiendish Indians consisted of houses, barns, fences, household furniture, family apparel, farming implements and utensils, horses, sheep, cattle—in short domestic animals of every description—all of which were of great value. These Indians were the wards of the Government and these attacks were unprovoked and unjustifiable. Those who suffered this loss at the hands of the Indians were in moderate circumstances and unable to [illegible] the loss. This remark also applies to the survivors of the murdered referred to. All those who were murdered as well as the surviving settlers settled upon the frontier at the instance of the Government, whose support and care for the Indians under treaties with [illegible] promised safety to all who should avail themselves of the offers and inducements of the United States to settle upon lands in that portion of the State. This destruction and loss of property not only affects those who have suffered it but also the interest of the State at large.

Therefore, your Memorialists would respectfully recommend that an appropriation be made by the Congress of the United States for the payment of these spoliation claims in such manner as may be just to the sufferers and to the State, and the Senators and member of the House of Representatives from Oregon are hereby requested to use their earnest efforts to have an appropriation made and the spoliation claims of our citizens growing out of the depredations mentioned adjusted and paid at the earliest possible moment.

Mr. STOTT, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back S. B. Nos. 1 and 7 with a substitute for each bill and recommending that the bills and substitutes be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. They were so referred.

Mr. UNDERWOOD, from the Committee on Counties, reported back H. B. No. [illegible], giving bounties on scalps of wild animals, and recommending its passage.

Mr. CURL, from the Committee on Roads and Highways, reported back H. B. No. 16, in relation to duties of Supervisors, with amendments to the title of the bill conforming it to the arrangement of the new Code and recommending that it pass.

Several amendments were offered which elicited some discussion, but failed to pass, and the bill was finally passed to its third reading.

Mr. REED, from the Committee on Enrolled Bills, reported H. J. R. No. 2 [illegible] and [illegible] correctly enrolled.

Mr. STANNARD, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills, reported H. B. Nos. 2[illegible], 1 and [illegible] correctly engrossed.

Mr. GEARIN, from the Committee on Corporations, reported back H. B. No. [illegible]6, to incorporate the town of Brownsville, and H. B. No. 13, for the incorporation of the town of Silverton, with recommendation that they do not pass [illegible] in accordance with a petition of the citizens of The Dalles for amendment of the city charter [illegible] prepared a bill herewith enclosed and recommend its passage.

Mr. MAYS, from the Committee on Printing, reported that they had conferred with Mr. Semple and are informed by him that his bill for printing is about $1[illegible] and that he is ready to measure the same whenever the House authorizes some person to assist in measuring the work.

Mr. REED, from the special committee to whom was referred the petition of fifteen hundred citizens of Oregon praying the Legislature to grant the right of suffrage to women, reported that they had prepared a bill in accordance therewith and recommended that it pass.

Mr. BRADSHAW said that he was one of that committee, but had received no notice of any meeting, had never consulted with the committee, and if that was their report he wished to present a minority report.

Mr. REED explained that he had submitted the report just read to the gentleman this morning and he had refused to sign it. It was signed, however, by a majority of the committee.

Mr. STOTT moved that the subject be referred back to the same committee for further consideration. The motion prevailed.

The House adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

The House resumed at half past one.

Mr. DEAN, from the special Committee to whom the subject [illegible] referred, reported back H. B. [illegible] to prevent [illegible] with a recommendation that the bill [illegible] the county of Umatilla [illegible] that portion of Linn county lying south of the South Santiam river.

The amendments were adopted, and on motion of Mr. Dean the bill was ordered engrossed for a third reading.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEES.

The Speaker appointed as the House Joint Committee on Railroads Reed, of Marion, McClung, Steen and Galloway, and as the House Joint Committee on enrolled bills Reed, of Marion, Hays and Wilson.

THE LOAN TO BAKER CITY.

Mr. McCLUNG, from the committee appointed to inquire into the condition of the loan of $[illegible] 000 from the Common School Fund to the Baker City Academy, reported that the Committee found the following condition: On November 19, 1872, there was executed in favor of the State a promissory note for $10,000, payable in ten years, with interest at 10 per cent. payable annually. Even date therewith is executed a mortgage on [illegible] acres of ground adjoining the town plat of Baker City and upon which the Academy building is located. Both of these papers are executed by the corporation bearing the signature of A. H. Brown as President. Upon this note there has been no interest paid, and according to the provisions of [illegible] is subject to foreclosure.

NOTICES OF BILLS.

Notices of the following bills were given by the gentlemen named:

Mr. NOYER—To amend section [illegible], title [illegible], chapter 57 of the General Laws relative to the levy, collection and returning of taxes and proceedings connected therewith.

Mr. JOHNSON—To tax dogs.

Mr. MATLOCK—To regulate fares and freights on the railroads of the State.

Mr. BUTLER—To incorporate Independence, Polk county.

Mr. CURL—For the relief of Grant county.

Mr. G[illegible]—To amend section 5, title 4, chapter [illegible] of the miscellaneous laws relative to fees of County School Superintendents.

Mr. MAYS—To amend section 330, chapter 5 of the act providing a code of criminal procedure.

Mr. BROWN—To define and punish the crime of conspiracy.

Mr. STANNARD—To facilitate the improvement of the Willamette river.

Mr. STOTT—For the registration of electors.

Mr. FLORENCE—To amend section 5, chapter 30 of the miscellaneous laws.

COST OF PRINTING BILLS.

Mr. RIDDLE offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Printing to inquire of the State Printer the difference in the cost of printing 100 and 200 copies of bills and to report.

The resolution was adopted.

FIRST READING OF BILLS.

The following bills introduced as indicated passed their first reading:

H. B. [illegible], introduced by the Committee on Corporations, amending the act incorporating the Dalles.

H. B. [illegible], Mr. McGUGIN—Establishing fees of Justices of the Peace.

H. B. [illegible], Mr. BROWN—To incorporate the town of Dallas, Polk county.

H. B. 3[illegible], Mr. RIDDLE—To prevent and punish gambling.

H. B. 3[illegible], Mr. STOTT—To license selling by sample.

H. B. [illegible], Mr. [illegible]LOW—For the fencing of railroads where adjoining county roads.

H. B. [illegible], Mr. REED, of Marion—To amend chapter [illegible] of the Criminal Code.

H. B. [illegible], Mr. STANNARD—To amend section [illegible], chapter [illegible] of the general laws relating to probate.

H. B. No. [illegible], Mr. STANNARD—To require particulars [illegible] and disbursements in [illegible].

H. B. [illegible], Mr. [illegible]ANSTON—To amend section [illegible] of Code of Civil Procedure.

H. B. [illegible], Mr. FIDLER—To repeal sections 10 [illegible], title [illegible], chapter 16 of the miscellaneous laws relating to [illegible].

H. B. No. [illegible]0, Mr. [illegible]—To create the office of Assistant Treasurer of State at a salary of two thousand dollars.

OREGON CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD.

On motion of Mr. REED, of Marion, H. B. No. [illegible], for the construction of the Oregon Central Pacific Railroad, the bill was taken from the table and referred to the Joint Committee on Railroads.

THE STATE GEOLOGIST.

Mr. STOTT offered a joint resolution setting apart one evening in which the State Geologist could be requested to report to both Houses the progress he has made and his plans for future work.

Mr. GALLOWAY moved to amend by striking out the words "and his plans for future work."

Mr. REED, of Marion, hoped the amendment would not prevail. If the gentleman from Yamhill (Mr. Galloway) once heard the future plans of the State Geologist he might alter his mind on the subject of abolishing the office.

Mr. CHAMBERS said that this was what the gentleman had told him that morning. That he was afraid to listen to the State Geologist lest he would be made to alter his opinion. [Laughter.]

Mr. FIDLER contended that the office was one of great importance. The State owed it to the country and as a matter of science to the whole world that her geological features should be elucidated and explained.

The amendment was voted down almost unanimously. There voted for the resolution fifty six, against two, two absent. The nays were Gearin and Johnson.

Mr. CHAMBERS created [illegible] amusement by offering a joint resolution setting apart an evening on which Mr. Galloway should be invited to state his objections to [illegible] plans for future work.

Mr. GEARIN moved to adopt it, and for some minutes the fun grew fast and furious and motions were made to refer to Committee on Internal Improvements, and to amend by referring to Committee on Woman Suffrage. Ultimately the Speaker interfered and brought the members back to serious work by pronouncing the resolution beneath the dignity of the house.

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

The following bills passed their second reading and were disposed of as indicated:

H. B. [illegible]8, for the construction of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad, read by title on suspension of rules, referred on motion of Mr. WRIGHT, of Union, to Joint Committee on Railroads.

H. B. 33, creating the County of Lake in Southern Oregon, with Linkville as the county seat—referred on motion of Mr. McCLUNG to Committee on Counties.

H. B. 41, to facilitate the redemption of lands sold for taxes, on motion of Mr. STANNARD, was ordered engrossed for third reading.

H. B. 4[illegible], to amend section 10, title 3, chapter 57 of miscellaneous laws relating to the assessment and valuation of property. Referred on motion of Mr. RIDDLE to the Committee on Judiciary.

H. B. 44, providing for a State Depository, the Bank to be selected to give bonds in the sum of $[illegible] 000 and to allow interest at the rate of [illegible] per cent. on all State money remaining on deposit for one year.

An amendment by Mr. PARTLOW to substitute six months for one year was adopted and the bill was then on motion of Mr. [illegible] referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

THIRD READING AND PASSAGE OF BILLS.

H. B. [illegible], introduced by Mr. LAUGHLIN, amending the act providing for the times and places for holding the Supreme, Circuit and County Courts, was read third time. The bill provides that County Courts shall be held as follows:

In Josephine, Douglas, Curry, Coos, Columbia, Clatsop, Tillamook and Umatilla on the first Mondays in January, April, July and September; in Grant, Baker, Lane, Wasco and Yamhill on the first Mondays in January, March, May, July, September and November; in Jackson, Linn, Benton, Polk, Marion, Clackamas, Washington and Multnomah on the first Monday in each month.

The bill passed the House by a vote of 53 to 4. Absent 3.

The nays were [illegible], Hays, Matlock and Ross.

H. B. [illegible], introduced by Mr. ROE, amending the act incorporating the town of Forest Grove, came up on its third reading and passed the House without dissent.

H. B. [illegible], introduced by Mr. STEEN, for the prevention of the spread of contagious and infectious diseases among domestic animals, making offenses against its enactments misdemeanors, punishable by a fine of not less than $100 and not more than $[illegible]. Read third time and referred on motion of Mr. RIDDLE to Committee on Counties.

S. B. No. 1, appropriating $30,000 for the payment of mileage and per diem of members and officers of the Legislative Assembly, came up on third reading, and after being amended on motion of Mr. STOTT with the addition of the words "other necessary expenses of the Legislature," passed the House without dissent.

On motion of Mr. REED, of Marion, ex-Gov. A. C. Gibbs was invited to a seat within the bar.

The House then adjourned.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The Chilliwhack Agricultural Exhibition is to be held on Thursday this week.

The Christ Church Cathedral case at Victoria will be carried into the Supreme Court by the Bishop.

Lieut. Harris, R. N., has been appointed to the command of the gunboat Rocket, under orders for the Victoria station.

The friends of the Very Rev. Dean Cridge in Nanaimo are about to join those of Victoria in a substantial expression of sympathy.

The schooner In[illegible] is taking a cargo of coals from the wreck of the Panther. The wreck has been stripped and the anchors, chains and rigging sent to Nanaimo.

From the Colonist we learn that over $118,000 in treasure was shipped from Victoria for San Francisco last week. Sixty thousand dollars worth of Cassiar gold dust was [illegible].

Capt. Millard's new steamer Gem started up the Fraser on Thursday of last week for the purpose of testing her capacity at riffle making. She was at Chilliwhack and the Onward passed down on Friday.

Mr. Barnard, a well known contractor of British Columbia, has been awarded the contract for the construction of the transcontinental telegraph line from Edmonton House in the Rocky mountains to Cache creek. The amount of the contract is $800,000, some hundreds of thousands below Messrs. Glass & Sifton's tender. Mr. Barnard has gone to Ottawa to make the necessary deposit with the Government and to take preliminary steps towards proceeding with the work of construction.

By the California we hear that the pack trains before reported as attacked by Indians on Skeena River had managed to elude the savages and get to a point within 200 miles of the Stikine when snow fell and they lost the trail opened by Lew Campbell's cattle and fell short of provisions. They sent a man named Glenn ahead to ask for assistance. He lost his way and, after wandering some days, reached the Stikine in a half starved demented state. He was found by miners who fed him and took him before Mr. Sullivan, who declined to send out to relieve the starving packers, alleging that he had no funds for that purpose. Mr. [illegible] Nelson and others proposed holding a meeting on the 13th September and sending a party out at their own expense. The distressed packers are Alex. Burnett, P. Grinde, Edgar Pattingill and "Hutch." Even if the men are saved the animals will perish.

Mosby, who is one of Mr. Grant's chief supporters in the third-term race, is evidently on the most friendly terms with the President. We constantly hear of his being in close consultation with the Executive. Yesterday he was again favored with an interview, and will at once return to Virginia to commence setting up the pins for the election two years hence.—Chicago Times, Sept. 21.

Mosby was one of the ablest cavalry Generals of the rebel army. How much he will be able to do as General Grant's aid-de-camp in the third-term campaign, remains to be seen.

WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR.

EIGHTH ANNUAL EXHIBITION OF THE WASHINGTON COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Third Day.

The weather continued as favorable as on the two former days and was all that the managers friends and visitors could desire. The attendance was as large as on any former occasion. At noon there were probably 750 persons on the Fair grounds, all of them determined to enjoy a good time. A large majority of those present were young persons, for whom the Pavilion, the various shows and the races were the chief attractions. The stock received apparently little attention. The exhibitors were comparatively few and the competition very limited for such a large and prosperous county as Washington.

CATTLE.

In this department S. G. Reed, Esq., was the only exhibitor. He had six of his famous thoroughbred short horns on the grounds, including his two favorite bulls Governor, General and Lord of the Valley, the two famous cows Rose Sovereign and Glossy Fifth, a beautiful seven month bull and Glossy Seventh, a seven month heifer, both of great promise. There being no competitors, they were all most deservedly awarded blue ribbons or first prizes. In fact the reason why there were no competitors was because the farmers of the country knew that they had no chance in competing with Mr. Reed's superior stock. Mr. E. Luelling, of Hillsboro, had a graded cow and calf in the stalls, but there was no indication about them that they were competing for prizes, so the Judges passed them by.

HOGS.

The display of hogs was respectable and of superior breeds. James Steele, Esq., of Portland, exhibited from his farm at Beaverton, some fine thoroughbred Berkshires, including a year old boar and sow, a six months boar and sow, a litter of nine, all of which took first prizes. The litter of nine and the year old boar took separate first class prizes in the sweepstakes.

J. P. Whiting, Esq., of Portland, exhibited from his farm at Beaverton, a litter of five thoroughbred Berkshires three months old, for which he was awarded the second prize. Some idea may be formed of the value of this breed of hogs from the fact that his representative was offered $10 for choice of a pair of them only three months old.

Mr. W. Hickin, of Beaverton, was awarded a second prize for a boar under a year old.

Mr. J. W. Gibson, near Hillsboro, exhibited a thoroughbred Chester white boar one year old, for which he got a first prize. This animal measures 4 feet 8 inches round the body and 14 inches round the fore leg. He also exhibited two sucking graded Chester whites, for which he got the blue ribbon.

Mr. Gibson and other breeders recommend as the most profitable breed for farmers, a cross of the Berkshire boar and the Chester white sow.

Mr. J. T. Naylor, of Forest Grove, exhibited a thoroughbred year old Essex sow and one 6 months old of the same breed, a 2 year old boar and a 2-year old sow, pure Essex also, for each of these he got a first prize. He also exhibited a litter of six of the same blood, less than two months, for which he was awarded a second prize.

Mr. A. Luelling, of Hillsboro, was awarded the first prize for the best litter of five Berkshires under 6 months.

Mr. Robert Imbrie, near Hillsboro, exhibited a pure 2 year old Chester white boar and sow, for which he got the blue ribbon for each.

It is evident to observers that the breed of hogs is making considerable progress in Washington county, to the great advantage of farmers. Suckers of the Berkshire and Essex and approved crosses, that sell from $25 to $30, pay the farmer better than selling "scrub" breeds at from $5 to $10 a pair.

HORSES.

There is no department of stock that Oregon has sustained her reputation in better than in importing and raising good horses. The exhibition to-day confirmed this impression, although the competition was not as extensive as might have been expected. The first exhibition was the best four year old stallions. Mr. W. A. Scoggins exhibited Foster, a beautiful seven year old chestnut for the saddle. Mr. Wm. Bigham exhibited his fine twelve-year old bay Luther. The latter got the blue ribbon and the former the second prize.

Four year old stallions of all work were called. Mr. P. Smith exhibited Pathfinder, Con. G. F. Miller Willamette, R. W. West Columbia, Jr. Pathfinder was awarded the first prize and Willamette the second prize.

In the five year old stallions of all work Mr. Wm. Bigham exhibited Ryestraw, and Mr. James Imbrie John. The former got the blue ribbon and John got the second prize.

In the list of one year old stallions of all work Mr. Wm. Chalmers was the only competitor. He exhibited two bays, a cross of the Clydesdale horse with American mares. He got of course a first and second prize.

Four-year old brood mares were called. Mr. John Ebberts exhibited a bay mare and got the first prize. Mr. L. W. Watts exhibited a brown mare for which he got the red ribbon.

For four year old brood mares for draft, Mr. J. D. Rowell got the blue ribbon for his bay mare Sarah.

Three year old fillies were examined. Mr. W. C. Scoggin exhibited Alice and got the blue ribbon. Mr. W. M. Bigham showed Minnie, for which he got the second prize.

On the list of two-year old fillies Mr. W. G. Scoggin exhibited Idlewild and took the first prize. Mr. W. Kellow entered a bay filly for which he got the red ribbon.

In the list of sucking colts Mr. John Ebberts entered Pathfinder (a bay) and Mr. L. W. Watts entered another Pathfinder (a brown). The latter won the blue ribbon and the former got the second prize.

In the list of four-year old draft stallions, Mr. J. D. Rowell entered Captain, Mr. D. Grierson entered Ben Roy, and Mr. J. H. Griffin entered Challenge. Ben Roy took the first prize and Captain got the second.

In the list of three year old draft stallions, Mr. Thomas Tucker entered Young John. He was the only competitor in this list, and got, of course, the blue ribbon.

In the list of two year old draft stallions, Mr. James Imbrie entered John. There being no competitor he got the blue ribbon.

In the list of one year old draft stallions Mr. Walter Moffett entered Stonewall. As he was the only competitor in this list he got the blue ribbon.

Under the head of sweepstakes Luther, the best stallion, got the first prize and Foster the second.

For the best three-year old stallion, Young John was the only competitor and got the blue ribbon.

For the best two year old stallion Rye Straw got the first prize and John got the red ribbon.

For the best one year old stallion Stonewall was the only competitor, and got the blue ribbon.

For the best brood mares Jessie got the first prize and Antelope got the red ribbon.

For the best three year old fillies, Minnie got the first prize and Alice the second.

For the best two year old filly Idlewild was the only competitor and got the blue ribbon.

For the best sucking colts Zeller got the blue ribbon and Granger the second prize.

For the best span of mules, Mr. William Thompson was the only competitor, and got the blue ribbon, of course.

THE RACES.

Were the chief attraction of the day. Much time was wasted in getting the horses on the ground. The first was a half-mile running race and repeat, by two-year old fillies. The prizes were $100 for the winner, $35 for the second filly and $25 for the third. Rye Straw was entered by Wm. Bigham, Laura Glenn was entered by Wm. White, and Idlewild by W. Musgrove.

The first heat was well contested by Rye Straw and Laura Glenn, the latter passing the Judges stand first by half a length. Idlewild was distanced and out of the race.

The second heat was interesting and exciting all the way. Laura Glenn kept ahead till the turn for the home stretch, when Rye Straw came up on the former rapidly and by a great effort passed the stand first by half a length amid great cheering, thus giving a heat to each of the fillies.

As another heat would decide the race and the fillies being so well matched, great interest was taken in the third heat. A good start was made. The first quarter mile was similar to the former heat—Laura Glenn ahead, but Rye Straw soon after came along side and got gradually in front and kept that position by a great effort until it passed the Judges stand by two lengths and was declared the winner of the race. Time 1:02 and 1:03.

The second race was a pacing one two mile heats and repeat. The prizes were $100 for the first horse, $50 for the second and $25 for the third. E. Whitfield entered the sorrel horse Bronchin, Wm. Gird entered the bay horse Shoo Fly, and J. A. Porter entered the black horse Walla Walla. Each heat was to be made in six minutes. Little interest was taken in this race. The public seemed to understand that it was a kind of family arrangement and allowed the drivers to have it nearly all to themselves. This applied to the selling of pools and betting, as well as to the public generally. The sorrel horse won the race in two straight heats. Time 5:37 and 6. Walla Walla was drawn off before the first quarter mile was made. The public, on such occasions, are not so easily deceived as some jockeys and drivers imagine. Honesty is good policy, even in racing.

S. G. REED'S IMPORTATION OF THOROUGHBRED HORSES.

Our traveling correspondent returned from San Francisco on the John L. Stephens. We have room this morning for only that portion of his correspondence describing Mr. Reed's horses.

Mr. Reed was a passenger on his return from a long tour in the Western, Northern and New England States and Canada, with the object of purchasing some thoroughbred horses for raising this class of stock on his farm in Washington county. He is confident that he has succeeded, after great trouble and expense, in securing some of the best trotting blood on this continent or ever imported from Europe. The horses purchased by Mr. Reed were all on board under the care of Mr. Lord, a competent judge of this class of stock. The farmers of Oregon will be much gratified to know something of these choice animals, and will rejoice that Mr. Reed has given such another practical manifestation of his good taste and great enterprise to improve the breed of horses in the State, in addition to what he has accomplished in the finest breeds of cattle. Among the number purchased is

AUTOCRAT.

A chestnut stallion by George M. Patchen, first dam by Vermont Hambletonian, second dam by Old Abdallah. In him, through his sire, there is the blood that produced Lucy, American Girl, George M. Patchen, Jr., Harry Genett, Sam Purdy and others. Through his first dam he has the blood that produced Sontag, Princess, Honest John, General Knox, Camours, Lady Maud and others. Through his second dam there is the blood that produced Goldsmith Maid, Dexter, Volunteer, Nettie, Gloster, Huntress and Bodine. Although Autocrat has no record and has very little training, he has shown wonderful speed, making a mile in less than 2:30, half mile in 1:13, and a quarter in 34 seconds. He has the combination of blood that has produced the fastest trotters in the world.

WOODBURN.

Is a black stallion by Borden, son of Woodburn Pilot, out of Woodburn Pilot's dam Maggie by Membrino Chief; second dam by a pacing horse Red Fox. In him there is the blood that produced Lady Thorn, Brignoli, Membrino, Patchen, Erie, John Morgan, Pilot Temple, and almost the identical blood that produced Membrino Gift, the stallion that has the fastest record in the world. Woodburn Pilot, his half brother (and also his grand sire), was sold by his breeder, E. S. Wadsworth, Esq., of Chicago, Illinois, to the Vermont Stock Co. for $10,000.

PEGGY.

Is a bay mare by Iron Duke, son of Rysdyk's Hambletonian. First dam by Bolivar, Jr.; second dam by Young Messenger Duroc. She has a colt at her side by Spaulding's Abdallah. Spaulding's Abdallah was by Old Abdallah, his dam by Star Gazer, son of imported Messenger—thus combining a large amount of Messenger blood, the fountain head of famous trotters.

OLEAN.

Is a bay mare, by Border Chief, son of Membrino Chief; first dam Olinda, by [illegible]; second [illegible] by Young Onus; third dam by imported Onus. She has a colt at her side by Mendans, son of Rysdyk's Hambletonian.

GOLDEN [illegible].

Is a chestnut mare, by [illegible]on's Star, son of American Star, and full brother to Goshen Maid; first dam by Young Uncus; second dam by a Diomeed horse. She has a filly at her side, by Spaulding's Abdallah.

PRUNELLA.

Is a bay mare, 3 years old, by Alhambra, son of Membrino Chief and Susan, by American Eclipse; first dam by imported Knight of St. George; second dam by imported Monarch; third dam by American Eclipse.

KITTY LEWIS.

Is a grey filly, 2 years old, by Silver Duke, son of Iron Duke, and running back through the dam of Silver Duke to Engineer, the sire of Lady Suffolk. This filly has perhaps as large a proportion of Messenger blood in her as any animal of her age living.

MINNIE.

Is a bay filly, 1 year old, by Silver Duke, dam by Toronto, son of St. Lawrence. Through this filly's dam there is the blood that produced Royal George, Toronto Chief, Thomas Jefferson and numerous others, noted for their extraordinary endurance.

MARIETTA.

Is a chestnut filly, one year old, by Autocrat; first dam by Kossuth; second dam by American Eclipse, Lady Thorn, Smuggler, Geo. M. Patchen, Pocahontas and other celebrated trotters—had a cross of American Eclipse.

SPRINGFIELD MAID.

Is a chestnut filly by Lakeland Abdallah, dam by Alexander's Abdallah. This filly is inbred to Abdallah, the same as the renowned Goldsmith Maid. From her form and pedigree great things may be expected of this filly.

YOUNG MARQUIS.

Is a thoroughbred imported Clydesdale stallion, four years old, bay color, with white star, striped face, a little white on his hind feet, and weighs 1,900 pounds. Mr. Reed bought him from Mr. Robt. Cherry, Toronto, Canada, at a cost of $3,000. He is considered the finest young horse of the kind ever imported into Canada. Nine of his colts seen by Mr. Reed, show great uniformity in [illegible],—all bays, with white star in forehead, great quarters, fine set of head and neck, combining great strength and action. Mr. Reed, by his former large importations of the best stock to be found in the United States and Canada, has proved himself a benefactor to the State, and an example worthy of all praise.

THURSDAY MORNING OCTOBER 1 1874

FROM MOSES TO CHAMBERLAIN

Robert B Elliott Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of South Carolina has addressed a proclamation to all good Republicans assuring them that the nomination of D H Chamberlain for Governor by the Republican State Convention, is purely and entirely in the interest of reform and good government, and that his election is sure to put an end to the misrule and corruption that have made South Carolina politics a stench in the nostrils of honest people of all parties To all of which the Washington Chronicle a paper that never flinches so long as there is any possible excuse for pressing forward in support of the Republican party and its nominees coolly suggests that if the Republicans of the Palmetto State are really and earnestly desirous of reformation the selection of some other man, whose name had not been associated with the unparalleled frauds that have distinguished the administration of public affairs in South Carolina" would have furnished better evidence of that purpose, and that if the claim of some Republicans that Chamberlain can do more to bring about a pure administration than any other man then he ought to be elected, but if it is to be a continuation of the old disgraceful management, the people of South Carolina without respect of party should vote for some other [illegible]"

This, considering its source is a center [illegible] The claim of Chamberlain's sup[illegible] is a fraud on its face, and so pal[illegible] a fraud that even the straightest of straight Republican papers cannot forbear to call attention to it The idea of a man whose name has been conspicuously con[illegible] with the most shameless frauds [illegible] have been perpetrated in recent pol[illegible] being the most suitable person to [illegible] in a reform movement is preposterous and absurd We have all seen the corruptionists rush to the front crying [illegible] than anybody else for Reform, when the storm of popular indignation aroused by their misdeeds has become too [illegible] for them to stem and we have all learned how false and hollow such pro[illegible] of reformation are. When a lot of the leaders of hypocritical Pharisees tried to palm themselves off on Christ for repentant converts to his doctrines, he [illegible]nced them to their faces for a brood of vipers, who were fleeing from the coming wrath instead of striving for holiness of life, and told them it would be time enough to trust their professions when their conversion had produced fruit. That was philosophy as well as inspiration And the same discernment of the truth through the mask of falsehood which sent [illegible] vipers, writhing and sibilant, back to their dens, would send all political knaves of the Chamberlain stripe to back[illegible], if not to prison, till they had brought forth fruits meet for repentance' These Republicans of South Carolina who [illegible] called another Convention, which is to meet to-morrow to nominate a candidate for Governor, certainly have all the [illegible] on their side, and if they make a [illegible] nomination they ought to have the votes as well as the argument

OUR STANDING ARMY

We have had no opportunity to examine the bill introduced by Mr Gearin of this county [illegible] the [illegible] law and cannot speak with certainty of its provisions The law certainly needs revision That provision of it allowing anybody who can do so to organize a military company, and demand from the county, thereupon, the sum of $50 per month to keep up the organization, should have been re[illegible] long ago, and not having been re[illegible] long ago it should be repealed now [illegible] the estimates made by the County Court of this county for the expenses of the current year there is an item $2,400 for the support of four militia companies What use has Portland for this army? It is in no way useful and is but slightly ornamental Portland is not engaged in a war with any other power, nor does the State of which she is the chief city sustain any such relations to other nations of earth as to require that she keep up this military establishment Like the old lady [illegible] her son for [illegible] the name of the devil, we do not relish joking about sacred things and we, therefore, wish to be regarded as in earnest when we say the militia law as it now stands provides for a little more of the pomp and circumstance of glorious war"—with the war left out—than is either necessary or convenient to those who have to foot the bills We [illegible] from tax[illegible] on this subject, and it is to be hoped the ax will now be laid at the root of the tree It might be well enough for a place like Portland, and possibly for one or two other of the principal towns of the State to contribute a little to sustain a militia company rather as a matter of [illegible] than for any actual necessity, but the present law, enacted when there was a great war on hand and for the occasion of war, spreads it on entirely too thick [illegible] eighteen hundred or twenty [illegible] hundred dollars [illegible] for [illegible] ought to be saved to the tax-paying people.

THE NEW YORK TIMES ON LOUISIANA AFFAIRS

The New York Times is admitted to be pretty good Republican authority Its opinion, therefore upon the state of things in Louisiana cannot be impeached on the ground of political prejudice against the party in power And here is what it says of the government of Louisiana.

The government of William Pitt Kellogg is [illegible] one which we have never been able to defend The Durell decision which [illegible] in establishing it was an outrage. The conduct of the Returning Board which declared [illegible] was dishonest The taxation since 1872 has been arbitrary and oppressive Leg[illegible] has been a shame [illegible] The revenue [illegible] from the impoverished people has [illegible] people [illegible] New Orleans [illegible] administration [illegible] Real estate in the metropolis is worth nothing in the present condition of affairs no one will buy it The prominent local banks have recently failed Laborers and salaried employes alike are paid in scrip worth thirty cents on the dollar Many streets are desolate Whole pages of all the papers are filled with the names of delinquent tax-payers Blacks and whites in some sections of the State are in danger of starvation An election for State and parish officers is shortly to be held in Louisiana. The Kellogg government has recently secured the passage of an act giving the Governor the power to appoint all registers of election throughout the State and these registers are to have authority to strike names of voters from the lists

The bill to reduce the compensation of the Judges of the Supreme Court will come up on its third reading in the Senate to-day It proposes to reduce the salary of the Judges to $2,000 with no provision for their traveling expenses We cannot but think the people of this State are willing to do better than that by their Supreme Judges Of all the officers of the State they are the worst paid and the worst overworked No one is more desirous than we of seeing the Legislature economize in every reasonable way, but this does seem unreasonable

Those Liberal Republicans in the East who have got into the Democratic party are complaining that they don't get a smell in the distribution of offices Good enough for them In the first place if the offices are what they are after they ought not to have a smell and secondly they know unless they were too much blinded by prejudice to know anything aright, that going over to the Bourbon rings to get rid of the Republican rings was jumping out of the frying pan into the fire

The people of this State are paying Colonel Cornelius his regular per diem as a State Senator while he is out at his place oppressing the people of Washington county outrageously with the warehouse monopoly which he enjoys by the grace of Ben Holladay the ex railway magnate

The grape crop of California is more abundant this season than it ever was before

FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM Sept 30 1874

In the House the loquacious members—there are a few of them—have thus early in the session learned to restrain their tongues while in the Senate there appears a general disinclination to debate It looks now as if the greater part of the work will be done in committees Everything goes to one committee or another and some of them are beginning to complain of their burdens Thus the Senate Judiciary Committee is spoken of as the pack horse to carry every measure that can be conveniently referred to it, So a Senator characterized it a few days since

The new members—and almost every Representative is inexperienced in legislation—fret a little under these unusual burdens, but they are fast getting accustomed to the harness The committees are busy every night their sessions are well attended and they work conscientiously Indeed there is little else for them to do There is a singular dearth of amusements in Salem just now and most of the members are practical temperance men (whether they vote for Local Option or not) while raw oysters are wholly out of the question The restaurateurs who have crowded in wherever an area of one hundred feet is available say that the bivalve is unsuited to the Granger stomach and that unless some lobby from the metropolis comes to the rescue a score of banners must fall Yesterday I heard some one ask how it was that there were no parties or receptions this year A jocular Senator replied Salem has no Capitol to build this year and an appropriation for building an Insane Asylum has no show in this Legislature That was uncharitable. But wouldn't the people of Salem like to know that Senator's name though? Whew!

Last night many of the members attended a lecture, or something of that kind, at Reed's Opera House. The Railroad Committee held a session, however and considered the railroad bills now before the Assembly

IN THE SENATE.

Yesterday the morning session was consumed in the reading of bills At the afternoon session Mr Hirsch raised a little breeze on the subject of absenteeism in asking that the Senator from Washington county (T R Cornelius) be granted leave of absence for ten days Mr Myers reminded the Senate that Col Cornelius had already asked and obtained leave of absence on one or two occasions and Mr Offield asked if it was customary for persons charged by the people with the duties of legislation and honored with the high office of Senator to remain at home to attend to their private business and yet draw their per diem Mr Offield said if it was customary he would like to remain at home also (Here a [illegible] Senator cried out Consent ') [illegible] Dolph had a theory of his own He thought Col Cornelius should have the leave of absence asked for and this was his reason

Mr President For a number of years—I don't know just how many—Mr Cornelius has been a member of this body During his long service he has always been found in his seat and I think it is but just that he should have a little time now to attend to his private affairs This was kind and considerate in the Senator from Multnomah and it so touched the heart of Mr Myers that he was led to remark that he would favor granting Cornelius leave of absence for the balance of the session This fraternal sentiment touched a [illegible] chord in the breast of the senior Senator from Multnomah who, by the way is attorney for the Oregon Central and the Oregon & California Railroads He rose with evident emotion doubtless intending to read the following excerpt from the Forest Grove Independent of last Thursday when the President of the Senate announced that leave of absence until Monday next would be granted the Senator from Washington county

"Last Saturday the order was given by Superintendent Brant to Geo Shaw agent at Cornelius, to allow no more wheat shipped from Cornelius except through Col T R Cornelius warehouse. Jerome Porter who is in the wheat business interviewed Brant and Gaston and they both said that it was their understanding that wheat could be shipped outside the warehouse Nevertheless the order was made and now no grain can be shipped from Cornelius without the Colonel takes his seven cents royalty out of it

We see now very distinctly why it was that the Colonel got ten days leave of absence from the Legislature—he learned that the farmers were shipping their wheat outside of his warehouse and he came down to put a stop to it.

I don't propose to have the reporter for the OREGONIAN expelled from the floor of the Senate, so I'm going to hedge a little Mr Dolph didn't read the paragraph above quoted More's the pity for he has a fine voice passable elocutionary powers and he would have known just where to put the emphasis

THE STATE UNIVERSITY BILL.

Was the subject of a spirited discussion later in the afternoon This bill (S B 14) provides for an extension of time to January 1, 1875 and for the appropriation of the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10 000) from the interest on the fund derived from the sale of the seventy two sections of land donated to the State of Oregon for the use and support of a State University (Act of Congress February 14 1859) Messrs Webster and Dolph opposed the bill and Mr Watson supported it The latter [illegible] himself somewhat more than a match for the senior Senator from Multnomah. Mr Dolph may have been facile princeps among the Republican Senators last week but [illegible] departed [illegible] to Watson and is in that sense (and that alone) the [illegible] of the Senate

There is a considerable representation of

PORTLAND PEOPLE

In the Third House. Among them I note Messrs Gibbs Backenstos William Strong Durham [illegible] George J Curry H D Green, Zieber, Hall Kung, W W Chapman Ankeny A J Marshall Russell (Irwin) [illegible] There are Messrs Pengra G W Colby (of California) and numerous others from divers parts of the State And hanging on the verge are the saintly Owen and the jocund Hender[illegible]

Senator Morton said the other day in a speech at Indianapolis, that when thieves are found in the Republican party they are kicked out That explains the hard kick Grant gave Morton last winter

THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 1, [illegible]

FROM MOSES TO CHAMBERLAIN.

Robert B. Elliott, Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of South Carolina, has addressed a proclamation to all good Republicans, assuring them that the nomination of D. H. Chamberlain for Governor by the Republican State Convention, is purely and entirely in the interest of reform and good government, and that his election is sure to put an end to the misrule and corruption that have made South Carolina politics a stench in the nostrils of honest people of all parties. To all of which the Washington Chronicle, a paper that never flinches so long as there is any possible excuse for pressing forward in support of the Republican party and its nominees, coolly suggests that if the Republicans of the Palmetto State are really and earnestly desirous of reformation, "the selection of some other man, whose name had not been associated with the unparalleled frauds that have distinguished the administration of public affairs in South Carolina" would have furnished better evidence of that purpose; and that if the claim of some Republicans, that Chamberlain can do more to bring about a pure administration than any other man, then he ought to be elected, "but if it is to be a continuation of the old disgraceful management, the people of South Carolina, without respect of party, should vote for some other man."

This, considering its source, is a center [illegible]. The claim of Chamberlain's supporters is a fraud on its face, and so palpably a fraud that even the straightest of straight Republican papers cannot forbear to call attention to it. The idea of a man whose name has been conspicuously connected with the most shameless frauds that have been perpetrated in recent politics being the most suitable person to lead in a reform movement is preposterous and absurd. We have all seen the corruptionists rush to the front crying louder than anybody else for Reform, when the storm of popular indignation aroused by their misdeeds has become too strong for them to stem; and we have all learned how false and hollow such professions of reformation are. When a lot of the leaders of hypocritical Pharisees tried to palm themselves off on Christ for repentant converts to his doctrines, he denounced them to their faces for a brood of vipers, who were fleeing from the coming wrath instead of striving for holiness of life, and told them it would be time enough to trust their professions when their conversion had produced fruit. That was philosophy as well as inspiration. And the same discernment of the truth through the mask of falsehood which sent the vipers, writhing and sibilant, back to their dens, would send all political knaves of the Chamberlain stripe to back seats, if not to prison, till they had brought forth "fruits meet for repentance." Those Republicans of South Carolina who have called another Convention, which is to meet to-morrow to nominate a candidate for Governor, certainly have all the argument on their side, and if they make a judicious nomination they ought to have the votes as well as the argument.

OUR STANDING ARMY.

We have had no opportunity to examine the bill introduced by Mr. Gearin of this county to amend the militia law, and cannot speak with certainty of its provisions. The law certainly needs revision. That provision of it allowing anybody who can do so to organize a military company, and demand from the county, thereupon, the sum of $50 per month to keep up the organization, should have been repealed long ago, and not having been repealed long ago it should be repealed now. Among the estimates made by the County Court of this county for the expenses of the current year there is an item $2,400 for the support of four militia companies. What use has Portland for this army? It is in no way useful, and is but slightly ornamental. Portland is not engaged in a war with any other power, nor does the State, of which she is the chief city, sustain any such relations with the other nations of earth as to require that she keep up this military establishment. Like the old lady who reproved her son for mentioning lightly the name of the devil, we do not relish jesting about sacred things; and we, therefore, wish to be regarded as in earnest when we say the Militia law as it now stands provides for a little more of "the pomp and circumstance of glorious war"—with the war left out—than is either necessary or convenient to those who have to foot the bills. We hear a great many complaints from taxpayers on this subject, and it is to be hoped the ax will now be laid at the root of the tree. It might be well enough for a place like Portland, and possibly for one or two other of the principal towns of the State to contribute a little to sustain a militia company rather as a matter of style than for any actual necessity; but the present law, enacted when there was a great war on hand and for the occasion of war, spreads it on entirely too thick. At least eighteen hundred of that twenty-four hundred dollars in this county, for instance, ought to be saved to the tax-paying people.

THE NEW YORK TIMES ON LOUISIANA AFFAIRS.

The New York Times is admitted to be pretty good Republican authority. Its opinion, therefore, upon the state of things in Louisiana cannot be impeached on the ground of political prejudice against the party in power. And here is what it says about the government of Kellogg:

> The government of William Pitt Kellogg in Louisiana is one which we have never been able to defend. The Durell decision which resulted in establishing it was an outrage. The conduct of the Returning Board which declared it elected was dishonest. The taxation since 1872 has been arbitrary and oppressive. Legislation has in hundreds of cases been [illegible] Districts [illegible] by men who never saw them. The small revenue wrung from the impoverished people has been [illegible] to improper uses. New Orleans is bankrupt. The city administration is penniless. Real estate in the metropolis is worth nothing in the present condition of affairs; no one will buy it. The prominent local banks have recently failed. Laborers and salaried employes alike are paid in scrip worth thirty cents on the dollar. Many streets are desolate. Whole pages of all the papers are filled with the names of delinquent tax-payers. Blacks and whites in some sections of the State are in danger of starvation. An election for State and parish officers is shortly to be held in Louisiana. The Kellogg government has recently secured the passage of an act giving the Governor the power to appoint all registers of election throughout the State, and these registers are to have authority to strike names of voters from the lists.

The bill to reduce the compensation of the Judges of the Supreme Court will come up on its third reading in the Senate to-day. It proposes to reduce the salary of the Judges to $2,000, with no provision for their traveling expenses. We cannot but think the people of this State are willing to do better than that by their Supreme Judges. Of all the officers of the State they are the worst paid and the worst overworked. No one is more desirous than we of seeing the Legislature economize in every reasonable way, but this does seem unreasonable.

Those Liberal Republicans in the East who have got into the Democratic party are complaining that they don't get a smell in the distribution of offices. Good enough for them. In the first place if the offices are what they are after, they ought not to have a smell, and secondly, they know, unless they were too much blinded by prejudice to know anything aright, that going over to the Bourbon rings to get rid of the Republican rings, was jumping out of the frying-pan into the fire.

The people of this State are paying Colonel Cornelius his regular per diem as a State Senator, while he is out at his place oppressing the people of Washington county outrageously with the warehouse monopoly which he enjoys by the grace of Ben Holladay, the ex-railway magnate.

The grape crop of California is more abundant this season than it ever was before.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

SALEM, Sept. 30, 1874.

In the House, the loquacious members—there are a few of them—have thus early in the session learned to restrain their tongues, while in the Senate there appears a general disinclination to debate. It looks now as if the greater part of the work will be done in committees. Everything goes to one committee or another, and some of them are beginning to complain of their burdens. Thus, the Senate Judiciary Committee is spoken of as the pack-horse to carry every measure that can be conveniently referred to it. So a Senator characterized it a few days since.

The new members—and almost every Representative is inexperienced in legislation—fret a little under these unusual burdens; but they are fast getting accustomed to the harness. The committees are busy every night; their sessions are well attended and they work conscientiously. Indeed, there is little else for them to do. There is a singular dearth of amusements in Salem just now, and most of the members are practical temperance men (whether they vote for Local Option or not) while raw oysters are wholly out of the question. The restaurateurs who have crowded in wherever an area of one hundred feet is available, say that the bivalve is unsuited to the Granger stomach, and that unless some lobby from the metropolis comes to the rescue, a score of banners must fall. Yesterday I heard some one ask how it was that there were no parties or receptions this year. A jocular Senator replied: "Salem has no Capitol to build this year, and an appropriation for building an Insane Asylum has no show in this Legislature." That was uncharitable. But wouldn't the people of Salem like to know that Senator's name, though? Whew!

Last night many of the members attended a lecture, or something of that kind, at Reed's Opera House. The Railroad Committee held a session, however, and considered the railroad bills now before the Assembly.

IN THE SENATE.

Yesterday, the morning session was consumed in the reading of bills. At the afternoon session, Mr. Hirsch raised a little breeze on the subject of absenteeism, in asking that the Senator from Washington county (T. R. Cornelius) be granted leave of absence for ten days. Mr. Myers reminded the Senate that Col. Cornelius had already asked and obtained leave of absence on one or two occasions, and Mr. Offield asked if it was customary for persons charged by the people with the duties of legislation and honored with the high office of Senator to remain at home to attend to their private business and yet draw their per diem. Mr. Offield said if it was customary he would like to remain at home also. (Here a [illegible] Senator cried out: "Consent!") [illegible] Dolph had a theory of his own. He thought Col. Cornelius should have the leave of absence asked for, and this was his reason: "Mr. President: For a number of years—I don't know just how many—Mr. Cornelius has been a member of this body. During his long service he has always been found in his seat, and I think it is but just that he should have a little time now to attend to his private affairs." This was kind and considerate in the Senator from Multnomah, and it so touched the heart of Mr. Myers that he was led to remark that he would favor granting Cornelius leave of absence for the balance of the session. This fraternal sentiment touched a responsive chord in the breast of the senior Senator from Multnomah, who, by the way, is attorney for the Oregon Central and the Oregon & California Railroads. He rose with evident emotion doubtless intending to read the following excerpt from the Forest Grove Independent of last Thursday, when the President of the Senate announced that leave of absence until Monday next would be granted the Senator from Washington county:

"Last Saturday the order was given by Superintendent Brant to Geo. Shaw, agent at Cornelius, to allow no more wheat shipped from Cornelius except through Col. T. R. Cornelius' warehouse. Jerome Porter, who is in the wheat business, interviewed Brant and Gaston, and they both said that it was their understanding that wheat could be shipped outside the warehouse. Nevertheless the order was made, and now no grain can be shipped from Cornelius without the Colonel takes his seven cents royalty out of it.

"We see now very distinctly why it was that the Colonel got ten days' leave of absence from the Legislature—he learned that the farmers were shipping their wheat outside of his warehouse and he came down to put a stop to it."

I don't propose to have the reporter for the OREGONIAN expelled from the floor of the Senate, so I'm going to hedge a little: Mr. Dolph didn't read the paragraph above quoted. More's the pity; for he has a fine voice, passable elocutionary powers, and he would have known just where to put the emphasis.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY BILL.

Was the subject of a spirited discussion later in the afternoon. This bill (S. B. 14) provides for an extension of time to January 1, 1875, and for the appropriation of the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) from the interest on the fund derived from the sale of the seventy-two sections of land donated to the State of Oregon for the use and support of a State University (Act of Congress, February 14, 1859).

Messrs. Webster and Dolph opposed the bill and Mr. Watson supported it. The latter has, [illegible] proven himself somewhat more than a match for the senior Senator from Multnomah. Mr. Dolph may have been facile princeps among the Republican Senators last week, but the sceptre has departed from his hands. He plays second fiddle to Watson, and is in that sense (and that alone) the Fiddler of the Senate.

There is a considerable representation of

CITY.

THE SPENCER CASE.—An article [illegible] in [illegible] columns some weeks ago, [illegible] Dr. A. J. Spencer, of San Jose, [illegible] who came to Portland accompanied [illegible] interesting looking woman [illegible] to be his wife. The parties [illegible] city nearly two months, [illegible] world, as man and wife. Discovery of the relations between Spencer and the [illegible] was made at length, and both parties [illegible] convenient to change climate, which [illegible] delayed not to do. During the absence [illegible] Spencer, his wife, who learned of his whereabouts, forwarded papers to this city, stopping [illegible] payment at the bank at San Jose, which [illegible] served on the peccant disciple of [illegible]lapius. Just before leaving San Jose, he [illegible] a large sum of money in the bank [illegible] and departing, took with him letters of [illegible] on Paris, London and Rome. While [illegible] Spencer stated to numerous persons that [illegible] posed to remain in Portland until next [illegible] and then make the tour of the Old [illegible]. He said he had plenty of money—the [illegible] of many years' professional toil—and intended to travel and spend the remainder of [illegible] in the enjoyment of his wealth. After [illegible] here he went directly to San Jose, and [illegible] made a fight against the legal proceedings his wife had instituted. Meantime the [illegible] began suit for a divorce, and for the recovery of $100,000 against the old gentleman. The [illegible] is now in progress in San Jose. It transpires that the husband now denies every [illegible] affirming that he never ran off with [illegible] young woman, never came to Portland, [illegible] never told any persons while here that he [illegible] posed to go to Europe. In fine, he denies [illegible] allegation and defies the aforesaid allegation. Yesterday, a well known citizen of this [illegible] received a telegram from Mr. J. A. Moll[illegible], the attorney of Mrs. Spencer, making [illegible] inquiries as to statements made by the [illegible] while here. It is quite probable that [illegible] gentleman, and other parties who heard [illegible] make certain statements in this city, [illegible] be required to appear before the Court at [illegible] trial, or make affidavit to the same. Mrs. [illegible] is said to be a strict church member [illegible] a lady of irreproachable character. From [illegible] high social standing of the parties, the [illegible] is creating great excitement in the locality where they are known.

BOOKS DISCOVERED.—In our item yesterday [illegible] disappearance of Miss Anna White, [illegible] was made to the school-books which [illegible] young lady had when she left her home [illegible] Friday evening. Yesterday afternoon all [illegible] books were discovered, secreted in a small [illegible] of fir bushes near the [illegible] and a short distance from Mason's [illegible]ery. The books were discovered by [illegible] small children who were playing in that [illegible]ity. They reported the matter to their [illegible] who took the package. Among the books was found a letter written by Mrs. [illegible], and addressed to the Sister Superior, of [illegible] Mary's Academy. We have not seen the [illegible] in question, but learn that its contents [illegible] to the effect that Anna should deliver [illegible] books to the Sister. According to the [illegible] of the letter, the books then belong [illegible] the Academy. Further than the finding of [illegible] books, no traces have been discovered of [illegible] missing girl. Diligent search is being made [illegible] the police and the friends of the young [illegible]man. A strong impression exists in the [illegible] of the community that Anna has not [illegible] away with herself, [illegible] She was a sweet tempered, [illegible] amiable young woman, and beloved by [illegible] who knew her. We sincerely trust that [illegible] mystery may be cleared up.

A FALSE REPORT.—Rumors have been afloat [illegible] the past few days to the effect that Maj. [illegible] Eggleston, concerning whose alleged [illegible] of Government funds entrusted to [illegible] care, a Court-martial has been investigating, was taken down last week to Fort Cape [illegible] Disappointment, tried, and sentenced by the [illegible] Court to seven years confinement. This report not only does that officer great injustice, by [illegible] adjudging him guilty, but is at the same time manifestly absurd. No human being, [illegible] has any right to know the result of the [illegible] Court's investigations, excepting those composing the Board. Even Maj. Eggleston and [illegible] counsel have no possible means of [illegible] learning the findings of the Court, until the [illegible] same are forwarded to Washington, carefully [illegible] examined, affirmed, or disapproved, and returned to the Adjutant [illegible] officially announced. Only a few days have elapsed since the findings of the Court were forwarded to the Department, and an answer can not be expected short [illegible]. We are at a loss to know how such a report originated. It has not the slightest foundation in fact, with the bare exception that Major Eggleston went down to Disappointment a few days ago, and will probably remain there until the result is known.

DEATH OF MR. L. C. FULLER.—Telegraphic information was received on Tuesday, by Mr. H. W. Davis, of the death of L. C. Fuller, his son-in-law. Mr. Fuller died on Monday, in the southwestern portion of Virginia, near the little town of Abbingdon. [illegible] well known in Portland, where he resided for many years. For several years he was engaged in the brokerage business, and at one time was connected with Mr. S. M. Lyon under the firm name of Fuller & Lyon. Meeting with financial reverses about four years ago, Mr. Fuller became greatly reduced in circumstances and retired from business. Shortly after, he removed to Kalama, where he resided [illegible] years. About 18 months ago, he moved to Virginia, taking with him his family. A brother of Mr. Fuller resides near Abbingdon, who is engaged in mercantile pursuits, and owns a large farm. Since deceased has been living in Virginia, he has been engaged in farming. The cause of his death is not stated. Deceased was aged about 35 years. He leaves a wife and three children.

SENT TO JAIL.—On Tuesday a man named David M. Field, was arrested and brought before Justice O. S. Phelps, charged with assaulting his wife. After hearing the case, the Justice took the matter under advisement until yesterday morning. Meantime, Field fell into the hands of the Police during Tuesday night. Yesterday morning he was brought up for trial and sentenced to jail for five days. Soon after receiving his sentence, he was taken up to Justice Phelps' Court and sent to the county jail for ten days, making fifteen days which David will be compelled to subsist on prison diet.

A GOOD HUNT.—Mr. H. W. Prettyman, the well-known proprietor of the Railroad Nursery, is not only hard to excel as an orchardist and raiser of fruits, but is some on the hunt. On Tuesday, Mr. Prettyman went out hunting. After a twelve hour's hunt he proceeded to take an inventory of the fruits of the [illegible]. On counting he found that he had bagged [illegible] snipe, 19 quail and 6 grouse, making a total of 119 birds. If any nimrod [illegible] above, we should like to have him come to the front.

TO THE ASYLUM.—Mrs. Louisa Knapp, a German lady, was examined yesterday before Judge Woodward, on a charge of insanity. She was adjudged insane and committed to the Asylum. The unfortunate woman was committed to the Asylum some months ago, but recovering her mind in a great measure, was released. She has been demented for several days, and at times so violent as to require two or three persons to hold her. She is the mother of several children. The cause of insanity is unknown.

BARK MIDIAS.—The American bark Midias, which sailed from New York on the 1st of June, for Portland, will be due here on the 5th of October. Since sailing, she has neither been seen nor spoken, so far as it is known. The Midias comes consigned to Knapp, Burrell & Co., and brings a full cargo of assorted freight. She is of 550 tons register, and probably brings 900 tons of freight.

CITY.

THE SPENCER CASE—An article appeared in these columns some weeks ago, regarding a Dr A J Spencer of San Jose, California, who came to Portland accompanied by a young, interesting looking woman, who proved not to be his wife. The parties remained in the city nearly two months, passing to the outside world as man and wife. Discovery of the true relations between Spencer and the was made at length, and both parties found it convenient to change climate, which they judged not to do. During the absence of his wife who learned of his whereabouts, forwarded papers to this city stopping payment at the bank at San Jose which further payment were served on the peccant disciple of Esculapius. Just before leaving San Jose he deposited a large sum of money in the bank there and departing took with him letters of credit on Paris, London and Rome. While here, Spencer stated to numerous persons that he proposed to remain in Portland until next spring, and then make the tour of the Old World. He said he had plenty of money—the result of many years professional toil—and intended to travel and spend the remainder of his days in the enjoyment of his wealth. After coming here he went directly to San Jose and boldly made a fight against the legal proceedings his wife had instituted. Meantime the wife began suit for a divorce and for the recovery of $100 000 against the old gentleman. The trial is now in progress in San Jose. It transpires that the husband now denies every charge affirming that he never ran off with the young woman, never came to Portland and never told any persons while here that he proposed to go to Europe. In fine he denies the allegation and defies the aforesaid allegations. Yesterday a well known citizen of this city received a telegram from Mr J A Moulton, the attorney of Mrs Spencer making sundry inquiries as to statements made by the husband while here. It is quite probable that this gentleman and other parties who heard Spencer make certain statements in this city will be required to appear before the Court at the trial or make affidavits to the same. Mrs Spencer is said to be a strict church member and a lady of irreproachable character. From the high social standing of the parties the scandal is causing great excitement in the community where they are known

BOOKS DISCOVERED—In our item yesterday of the disappearance of Miss Anna Wicks allusion was made to the school books which the young lady had when she left her home on Friday evening. Yesterday afternoon all the books were discovered secreted in a small clump of fir bushes near the macadamized road, and a short distance from Mason's old brewery. The books were discovered by several small children who were playing in that vicinity. They reported the matter to their parents who took the package. Among the books was found a letter written by Miss Wicks and addressed to the Sister Superior of St Mary's Academy. We have not seen the letter in question but learn that its contents were to the effect that Anna should deliver the books to the Sisters. According to the instructions of the letter the books were sent to the Academy. Further than the finding of the books, no traces have been discovered of the missing girl. Diligent search is being made by the police and the friends of the young woman. A strong impression exists in the minds of the community that Anna has not made way with herself but is hid away somewhere. She was a sweet tempered modest and amiable young woman, and beloved by all who knew her. We sincerely trust that this mystery may be cleared up

A FALSE REPORT—Rumors have been afloat for the past few days to the effect that Maj [illegible] Eggleston, concerning whose alleged [illegible] of Government funds entrusted to his care, a Court-martial has been investigating, was taken down last week to Fort Cape [illegible], ironed and sentenced by the Court to seven years confinement. This report does that officer great injustice, by [illegible] him guilty but is at the same time absurd. No human being knows, or has any right to know the result of the Court's investigations excepting those composing it. Even Maj Eggleston and his counsel have no possible means of learning the findings of the Court until the same are forwarded to Washington carefully [illegible], affirmed or disapproved and returned to the Adjutant's office here and then officially announced. Only a few days have elapsed since the findings of the Court were forwarded to the Department and an answer cannot be expected short of a month. We are at a loss to know how such a report originated. It has not the slightest foundation in fact with the bare exception that Major Eggleston went down to Disappointment a few days ago and will probably remain there until the result is known

DEATH OF MR. L C FULLER—Telegraphic news was received on Tuesday by Mr H W [illegible] of the death of L C Fuller his son in law. Mr Fuller died on Monday, in the south-eastern portion of Virginia near [illegible]. Deceased was well known in Portland, where he resided for many years. For several years he was engaged in the brokerage business and at one time was connected with Mr S M Lyon under the firm name of Fuller & Lyon. Meeting with financial reverses about four years ago Mr Fuller became greatly reduced in circumstances, and retired from business. Shortly after he removed to Kalama where he resided over two years. About 18 months ago, he moved to Virginia, taking with him his family. A brother of Mr Fuller resides near Abbington who is engaged in mercantile pursuits and owns a large farm. Since deceased has been in Virginia, he has been engaged in [illegible]. The cause of his death is not stated. Deceased was aged about 35 years. He leaves a wife and three children

SENT TO JAIL.—On Tuesday a man named David M. Field was arrested and brought before Justice O S Phelps charged with assaulting his wife. After hearing the case, the Justice took the matter under advisement until yesterday morning. Meantime Field fell into the hands of the Police during Tuesday night. Yesterday morning he was brought up for trial and sentenced to jail for five days. Soon after receiving his sentence he was taken up to Justice Phelps Court and sent to the county jail for ten days, making fifteen days which David will be compelled to subsist on prison diet.

A GOOD HUNT—Mr H W Prettyman the well known proprietor of the Railroad Nursery is not only hard to excel as an orchardist and raiser of fruits, but is one on the hunt. On Tuesday, Mr Prettyman went out hunting. After a twelve hour's hunt he proceeded to take an inventory of the fruits of the chase. On counting he found that he had bagged 191 snipe 19 quail and 6 grouse making a total of 216 birds. If any nimrod can discount the above we should like to have him come to the front

TO THE ASYLUM—Mrs Louisa Kruger a German lady, was examined yesterday before Judge Woodward on a charge of insanity. She was found insane and committed to the Asylum. The unfortunate woman was committed to the Asylum some months ago but recovering her mind in a great measure was released. She has been demented for several days, and at times so violent as to require two or three persons to hold her. She is the mother of [illegible] children. The cause of insanity is unknown

BARK MIDAS—The American bark Midas which sailed from New York on the 1st of June for Portland, will be due here on the 5th of October. Since sailing she has neither been seen nor spoken so far as it is known. The Midas comes consigned to Knapp Burrell & Co and brings a full cargo of assorted freight. She is of [illegible] tons register and probably brings 900 tons of freight

Regular meeting of the Pioneer base ball club this evening. Special business on hand

The Philomathean Society meet at an early day to discuss among other matters, the publication of a monthly journal

The Vancouver will leave hereafter at 2:30 P M. The change is made to accommodate the folks living some distance from Vancouver

John O Connor a Magician, is in the city giving many mysterious and strange tricks to amuse the "boys." He is an old gentleman and deserves a liberal support from lovers of strange feats of magic. He gives his performances on the streets

Editorial announcement was made in the News of last evening that the publication of the daily will be suspended on and after the 19th of October. The firm of Bellinger Curry & Co is dissolved. The publication of the Weekly News will be continued by Messrs J J Curry and John W Kelly

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Mr C B Bellinger has resumed the practice of law. See card

See City Treasurer Lewis advice to those having licenses to pay in the advertising columns

National Temperance prayer-meeting will be held in the vestry of the Baptist Church, Thursday afternoon October 1st

To-day is the opening of fall and winter styles in millinery goods at the White House. This will be good news for the ladies

John Moon formerly with Alisky & Hegele, has opened in Bickel's block a neat oyster and chop house. See card and call on him this evening

Special attention is called to the advertisement of Zan Brothers & Co, which appears in another column. This firm have now on hand at their place of business No 8 Front street a large and varied assortment of wooden and willow ware, brooms of all descriptions, brushes, cordage, twine etc etc, and many other articles in their line too numerous to mention. A very large assortment is now on the way from the East and will soon arrive here. We commend this firm to the patronage of the public. Read their card

AMUSEMENTS.

The attendance at the Theater last evening was fully as large as on the evening previous. Certainly as long as the Manageress places upon the stage such plays as "Led Astray" and "New Magdalen" she may expect large and respectable audiences. The latter play was produced last evening with an excellent cast and well appointed scenic effect. Mrs Stone and Mr Budley were the centre figures and the audience expressed their approbation of the acting of these artists by frequent demonstrations. The play after the prologue becomes more entertaining, and the auditors from that to the close are held spell bound. A lesson is taught from this play which many should see and profit by. We will not undertake to describe it as our space is limited. Led Astray to-night and no doubt a good attendance

OUT-DOOR SPORTS.

On Saturday there will be several races at the White House. See advertisement. We shall speak further on that day

The Arcadians are anxious for the final game with the College Club. They need not expect it soon, as the College boys will no doubt want time to get in better trim. The decisive game will attract more attention than the last one

PERSONAL.

Mr Geo W Cannon who went East about a year since suddenly dropped down on his old Portland friends again yesterday. He returns to this coast as traveling agent of the house of Henry & John Paret of New York. Wilson G Hunt and George Opdyke are partners in the establishment so it must have pretty good bottom to it. Mr Cannon leaves this morning on a business tour to the Sound country

NEW ENGINE HOUSE—Multnomah Co No 2's new building is rapidly assuming definite proportions. The brick work is almost completed. All the castings for the front of the second story are finished and are soon to be elevated to their proper position. These castings are of very handsome and appropriate design and will contribute greatly in causing the front of the building to present an imposing appearance in keeping with its character

You must see to believe what Beck & Waldman say of their stock of clothing. They will satisfy you that is certain. Call to day

Tom O Brien is happy because all tell him his cigars are A 1

If you want something that is new and not by in the way of clothing we would advise you to call on KOHN, who recently brought up an entire new stock of these goods. He is in the best humor over the fact that he has the finest stock in town. When you have time call and look over the goods and if you have [illegible] Kohn [illegible] a poor judge of clothing and what a [illegible]

FIRST OF THE SEASON—Last week Messrs Beck & Waldman opened the first [illegible] of all Styles in Cloth[illegible]. The purchase was made by Mr Beck while in San Francisco and he has certainly made a most excellent selection. The styles are new and will [illegible] Beck and Waldman are making a specialty of Boys Clothing [illegible] parents [illegible] for their [illegible]. Now is the time. THE TERRITORIES.

Henry Chapman of Olympia had his hand badly cut in the jointer of a bucket making machine on last Tuesday

A wagon and carriage factory is being erected at Dayton W T by Messrs Torrence & Co. The main building will be 60x1[illegible]0 feet 2 stories high

The schooner Alice built recently at Port Blakely, having made one trip to San Francisco has returned to Seattle and is loading lumber at Yesler's mill

Twenty four feet of land by sixty feet deep on the corner of Second and Cherry streets Seattle were sold a few days since for nearly $21 per front foot making at the rate of $2 500 a lot

The B B Mail says: Major Blake of Seattle last week relieved Mr John M Izett as Inspector of Customs at San Juan Island. Mr Izett is still in the service, wandering about in a revenue sloop

The Steilacoom Express says: "Mr I F Williamson of this city brought us this week some oat stalks measuring ten feet in height which were raised on his farm near town. They are of the Norway black variety

The Republican Convention of Walla Walla county on the 22d ult nominated the following ticket: Councilman S M Wait; Representatives J K Kennedy Martin Campbell I M Pomeroy A Zaring I G Newland and J K Straight; Sheriff William Vauter; Auditor, E B Whitman; Commissioners, Charles White W Park Winans and Warren Witcher; Assessor J Berry; Surveyor A J Knowlton

The Walla Walla Statesman of last Saturday says the reception tendered General Howard at that place on the previous Monday evening, was the most brilliant affair of the kind ever witnessed in Walla Walla, and was alike creditable to the good taste and judgment of the people as it was complimentary to General Howard for whose manly virtues and Christian nobleness of character the citizens of Walla Walla hold him in high esteem and consideration

The Independents of Walla Walla county have nominated the following ticket: For Councilman B L Sharpstein; for Representatives R G Newland O T Porter J M Cornwall Joshua Bryant R J Steen and W H Newell; for Sheriff, J F Brewer; for Auditor E B Whitman; for Probate Judge R Guichard; Treasurer A H Reynolds; Assessor W T McKern; School Superintendent M S Crawford; Coroner Dr Burch; Surveyor, A J Knowlton

The grain crop in Lewis county W T is considerable above an average. The worst feature is nearly one third of the wheat was slightly damaged by rain. All things considered the farmers have done about as well as in former seasons. Very few settlers in that county have taken any trouble to raise grain fruits or vegetables for the fair, though many will exhibit samples from their average yields. The grain raised in Lewis county is always considered good, but it might be improved

The Courier says: "A man who came across the mountains through the Natchez Pass reports having seen a party of prospectors who left Olympia some time ago to find the silver lead discovered by Messrs Barnes & Co. They were probably far enough east but it is the opinion of persons acquainted with the location of the mine and the route taken by the party that they will not find it. They have gone the wrong road. They should have gone direct from Olympia via Yelm Prairie and the Puck wood trail"

On the morning of Sept 21st the town of Placerville Idaho Territory was visited with a terrible fire and in half an hour nearly the whole place was in ashes. The principal losers are Garrett & Co, butchers; Mr Stickles restaurant; D Donavan saloon; James Thompson saloon; J V R Witt, merchant; John O Donal & Co butchers; James Davidson hotel; Leonard's boot and shoe store; Jas Elliff tin store; Mr Catshaw's dwelling house; A Orchard's dwelling house and lower livery stable and Odd Fellows Hall and Templars Hall

From the Bellingham Bay Mail we learn that at their Republican County Convention they had quite a stormy time which resulted in Messrs Eldridge Stevens Best, Kincade [illegible] Starwell Andrews, Wallace and Carpenter bolting the Convention. The cause of the delegates withdrawal may be gathered from the following: Mr Stevens said that the B R C Co was a gigantic moneyed monopoly, which he believed sought to control the county from a commercial and political point of view. He regarded this as a Coal Company's Convention and would therefore withdraw

The Olympia Courier says: The Chehalis valley is rapidly assuming those proportions designed for it by the Great Distributor of natural resources. The increase in population and consequent increase in number and capacity of improved farms and multiplicity of products now demand an additional stage coach between Olympia and the valley. Such a locality presents to the hitherto unsettled class of people a nucleus which by its natural fertility draws within its full marked circumference the ambitious and skillful farmer, hence we may not be surprised if a railroad from Olympia to some portion of the valley be demanded in a few years

A letter to the Boise Statesman from the once noted mining camp of Florence says: Affairs in this camp have reached the last stage of decadence but two white companies are working claims worthy of the name. Chinamen working the remainder of the ground. In the principal street of town on the flag staff where [illegible] the Star Spangled Banner waved in all its glorious majesty is flying a triangular Chinese flag, sufficient proof in itself of decay and degeneracy. Many miners of this camp after a sojourn of ten years in the mountains having at length given up all hopes of striking new placer diggings are striking out leaving the country until better times prevail

The Seattle Dispatch of the 24th says: Mr Jay G Kelley Assayer in this city has given us the following result of four specimens of mineral assayed by him for Mr Masterson of Snohomish county at the following rate per ton: No 1—gold $6 2[illegible] silver, $6 28, total $12 58, lead 6 per cent; No 2—gold $5 71 silver, $[illegible] total $18 19 lead 72 per cent; No 3—gold a trace silver $26 70, lead 10 per cent also a trace of copper; No 4—silver $47 13. These specimens came from different ledges near to each other situated on a spur of the Cascade mountains near the Skyhomish river about sixty five miles south east of Snohomish City, and about eighty miles from Seattle

The Idaho Statesman says: There has been a case of body snatching at Indian creek on the Overland road recently. A young girl about 14 years old daughter of an emigrant was buried there about four weeks ago and last week the inhabitants were horrified to find [illegible] of the coffin in which she was buried scattered in the sage brush. Upon visiting the grave last Saturday it was discovered that some one who was evidently used to the business had dug down at the head of the grave and drawn the coffin from its bed without disturbing the board which were put over it to keep off the dirt. What the object of the robbery can be is a mystery. The people of that section of country are justly indignant over this violation of the sanctity of the grave

THE LOUISIANA IMBROGLIO

The Chicago Inter Ocean sent a special reporter to New Orleans to investigate and report upon the troubles there. Here is a condensation of his graphic report:

AFFAIRS AT THE CUSTOM HOUSE.

To-night (Thursday) the city is quiet. The rag, tag and bob-tail of the militia has dispersed and the steady tread of the sentinel at headquarters is the only reminder of the possibilities of the hour. General Emory arrived at a late hour last night and has taken command of the military that is rendezvoused here. McEnery also arrived last night and although he is not to be found has been in communication with Penn and his supporters all day. I found Governor Kellogg in a private office at the Custom House with General Longstreet, Collector Casey, Marshal Packard and others, consulting over suggestions that had been offered. Mrs. Kellogg and several other ladies were of the party, a portion of the Custom House having been converted into a sort of temporary hotel and its inmates to a certain extent beleaguered captives. The Governor received me with great cordiality, as did the other gentlemen.

He said that he was confident that the outbreak would be quelled without further bloodshed and was in the receipt of information that indicated that the insurgents were at that moment considering in what way they could get themselves out of [illegible] scrape. Subsequently facts [illegible] the correctness of his surmise. He had a few minutes before and had been all the morning in receipt of plans of compromise from those who had sought to overthrow him. One of them presented to him by a committee of prominent citizens was that, in case Penn retired and his supporters delivered up their arms, he should publish a general amnesty proclamation. This he declined. Blood had been shed he said, cold blooded murder had been committed, and while he was in power he had no authority to suspend the laws of the State or the United States. A delegation of Penn's supporters told him that the war had not been upon him but upon the United States Government, and over his shoulder. Their whole conduct indicated an inclination to come down as handsomely as [illegible]. On the other hand, Kellogg was constantly receiving appeals both from his friends in the city and different parts of the country, beseeching him to make no concessions and assuring him of all the support he should [illegible]. Private letters, came in like rain, some prayers, some threats, others simple statements of his danger. One of these, an anonymous communication, read as follows:

ANONYMOUS WARNINGS,

"In the hour of triumph, surrounded by family and friends, President Lincoln found a Booth. [illegible] hope I would not have the stain of the assassin upon our State. Even the brave General Butler slept on board a United States vessel and was escorted to and from headquarters by a strong armed guard."

Kellogg told me that he has information and offered to show me papers and take me to the [illegible] that before this outbreak the White League had declared in their secret meetings that he should be [illegible], and had gone so far as to cast lots to decide

WHICH OF THE SWORN BAND SHOULD STRIKE THE FATAL BLOW.

Still they say they are not fighting him. He told an embassy from the Penn faction this morning that if they thought it would settle matters he would resign. He said he did not [illegible] the office and did not care to hold it, was willing to yield it up at any time to make peace, but to the [illegible] objected because it would leave the power in the hands of Antoine [illegible]. He [illegible] of Antoine resigning and leaving the power in the hands of Lowell, Speaker of the House of Representatives. But [illegible] the Radicals, they replied. That or supreme and entire control, Kellogg told them, were the only alternatives that he would consent to. He would [illegible] he promise any forbearance to law breakers. They have announced that [illegible] was inaugurated [illegible] Kellogg pointed to the fact that he had already given them one man of their choice on every board of registration.

Kellogg had kept his room since Monday evening as had also all of his staff and prominent supporters, as the city was in the hands of the insurgents.

and White [illegible] their stead, and nearly [illegible] patrol. The Custom House itself, a massive granite structure, was barricaded and garrisoned with three companies [illegible], and the strictest [illegible] to the admittance of strangers. The top of the stairs at each entrance was guarded by a barricade of boxed marble used for flooring, and the windows were prepared for an attack by planking fitted to the shutters. It had the appearance of an immense fortress as it really has been for three days.

Penn, on the other hand, was at the gubernatorial headquarters at the State House, six blocks away, surrounded by 500 or more and was receiving his friends. Nearly 200 of the wealthiest citizens of New Orleans were with him tendering congratulations and advice.

I WAS [illegible]

by the letter of a friend and receiving me he said that while the Inter-Ocean had shown a spirit that he could not understand and had condemned as unlawful and unjust one of the most reasonable and worthy revolutions that had ever been inaugurated, he was glad they had been so prudent as to send some one to look into the real facts. He hoped that I would see things that would convince the [illegible] public that his cause was the just one and that what had been called insurrection was but the uprising of oppressed men. He instructed his staff [illegible] I asked and gave me a pass that would admit me to his presence at all times.

PENN IS A MERCHANT OF WEALTH AND INFLUENCE

in New Orleans and owns large plantations in different parts of the State. He is a young man, not more than 30 years of age, fine looking and never has taken any active part in politics, having several times declined nominations for office. Two years ago he was candidate for Governor on a compromise ticket and I am told that there was no doubt of his election and he ran far ahead of his ticket, but Antoine, a wealthy negro on the ticket with Kellogg, was declared elected and received with Kellogg the recognition of the United States Government. A disinterested Republican, a Northern man and one who is intimately acquainted with the situation, informed me that, in his opinion, Kellogg and Penn should have been recognized instead of Kellogg and Antoine.

This brings me to a fact in this trouble which has not yet been published, but which had great influence in its culmination.

A BARGAIN

had been made among the White Leaguers to secure a united spirit in the insurrection and to satisfy some of the best men connected with the effort, that McEnery should have the State, that Penn, who was much more popular, should lead the movement, and upon its success should become Governor by the resignation of McEnery. To this McEnery and some of the leading Democrats consented, Penn and his friends contributing liberally to satisfy McEnery's mercenary demands, and the latter left the city some months ago, having spent the intervening time at Mobile and Vicksburg and other places, being supported by funds from New Orleans. The insurrection [illegible] and McEnery was sent for on Wednesday to come and offer his resignation, thus completing his portion of the bargain. He was met while on his way from Vicksburg by a committee from the White League, and the whole matter was talked over on the return in a Pullman coach which was occupied by them exclusively with the exception of two ladies who had the state room, and who overheard the greatest part of the conversation. From one of these ladies I have the story. She says that after the [illegible] felicitations upon the present victory and the outlook, one of the committee began to allude to McEnery's part of the bargain, and

HE SAY [illegible] LIKELY TO [illegible]

He said that he had been [illegible] in the struggle by men to whom he had promised, and that they had furnished him funds with [illegible] that he should put [illegible] in positions where they could make their contributions good. He did not remember having definitely agreed to any such contract, and he should not resign unless Penn allowed him to make all of the appointments and agree to keep in the offices the men he named. In this decision McEnery was supported by several of the committee, and a very excited discussion ensued, after which McEnery consented to let Penn hold the gubernatorial reins for the meantime—until a compromise could be effected. McEnery arrived in the city, made a brief speech in response to his welcome and was then seen thereafter during the day. He has not been at the headquarters of his faction and with General Ogden and others, although several orders were issued in his name.

At 10 o'clock last night the entire White League force numbering several thousand were under arms fearing an attack upon the State House and arsenal. A large body was massed in this portion of the city, while in the English quarter the Exposition Hall was filled with men ready at a moment's notice to move to the assistance of their comrades. The private [illegible] of Lieut. Gov. Antoine, who is absent from the city, was entered and sacked. The safe of one of the tax collectors in one of the Government buildings was broken open and about $5,000 in cash and a great many valuable papers stolen. Pickets from the White League were stationed all over the city and it was their constant practice during the whole night to capture every negro that came in their way, to demand of him to join the [illegible] militia, and in case of his refusal to maltreat and torture him. About 10 o'clock

THE FIRE BELLS RANG THE SIGNAL.

To arms, and about 3,000 White Leaguers met at the rendezvous to hear the information that the negroes had formed a plan under Longstreet to capture the State House and were massing at the City Park. The militia moved in that direction at double-quick, being joined at every corner by comrades, but found on reaching the park that there was no cause for the alarm. The disappointment was expressed in violent yells, and a poor unarmed negro who was drawn by curiosity to the crowd was taken, put up as a mark and shot full of bullets, every man that could crowd up firing into his body. This is one of the numberless incidents of the kind that my ears are filled with, and here let me tell you the correspondent of the Chicago Times died on Monday. The man whom that paper engaged was not a spectator of a fight, as the dispatches have stated, but

FORMED WITHIN THE REBELS,

And fought as savagely as any. After the Metropolitans had been driven back he saw a wounded negro policeman running from the fight as rapidly as his wounds would permit, carrying a gun. West, the correspondent, called to him, "Drop that gun, you s—n of a b—h," and fired his revolver. The negro was struck by the bullet and fell, West running to him to get the gun, but the negro raised himself with the desperation of death and seizing the bayonet plunged it into West's heart, and they died together. A friend of the Times correspondent witnessed the scene, and helped to take the body away. From his own lips I learned these facts.

THE WHITE LEAGUE CONSPIRACY.

The correspondent of the Chicago Tribune interviewed Marshal Packard, who said: "The [illegible] serious, and indeed the question is not only whether Kellogg or McEnery shall be Governor of this [illegible]; it is whether any Republicans shall be allowed to live and vote in the South. In case this White League movement should succeed in this State, there would not be a Republican left in [illegible] in the whole South in ten days. The State governments of Mississippi and South Carolina would be the next to succumb. Why, I have just received a letter from a gentleman in Northern Louisiana who begs me for God's sake not to let his name be published, who states that the White League have extorted promises for the Republicans there not to put forth any ticket in the coming campaign. Now if this state of affairs is allowed to exist, of what use is it to colored people to have the right of suffrage? These black people are not able to defend their rights by force of arms. They have not been brought up to it. If they attempt to they get killed. We have kept them out of the troubles here, have declined their services for a week. Now they would only be butchered."

I inquired of Mr. Packard if he thought the Leaguers would risk a conflict with the Federal forces? He said "The White League leaders disclaim any intention of coming into conflict with the United States troops, but we have information that the sub-leaders—the commanders of companies and small bodies—declare the intention of engaging the Federal soldiers in case they interfere."

Wheat [illegible] by [illegible] from San Francisco 10s 2d@10s 6d for average California and 10s 7d@11s for club.

There are but few [illegible] to the financial market to report so far during the week. For several days the demand has aggregated largely and the banks have again adopted the policy of withholding accommodations in nearly all cases except their regular customers, from the fact that the requ[illegible] made on them during the fall season are of such proportions that the supplying of all outside demands [illegible] the funds at present applicable in that direction. The call now comes principally from those engaged in moving the grain crop, and the conservatism displayed by them even lessens this demand, so that though we are entering upon one of the busiest months of the year usually, it [illegible] be said [illegible] the activity is great or the prospects peculiarly encouraging.

The first half of October being devoted to Agricultural Fairs in our State will have the effect to somewhat retard movements of the wheat crop for that time, but thereon we may expect [illegible] activity and a fair fall trade in that and other departments.

The Produce Market.

To-day presents but little activity. Since our last report prices, both here and in San Francisco, have declined and $1 35 per cental is given as the topmost quotation now, while some refuse to offer more than $1 30. The receipts to-day have been rather [illegible] than the average for a week past and likely so to continue till Monday. This is more particularly true of [illegible] from the west side of the river, the usual number of laden cars coming down on the east side this afternoon. Farmers are determined to make the experiment of shipping somewhat extensively if arrangements with vessels can be con[illegible], and we should not be surprised if they would load a number of ships on their own account in the next month. The late decline to $1 35 will stimulate the movement especially.

In Washington and Yamhill counties we learn that the Grangers are now just fairly done their threshing and are getting ready to ship or sell their wheat, and the same is true of many other sections of the State. The threshing demonstrated the correctness of the predictions of a heavy yield per acre, and we fear also the fact that many fields had been slightly injured by the rain. A correspondent, writing from Polk county under date of Sept. 27th, says:

Harvesting is over and the grain is saved, though only by a scratch. It was a narrow escape with a great many. A few more days of rain and there would have been but little use for ships and foreign markets, and as it is I don't know but what it will interfere with our grain shipping. I should be very sorry if the wheat that was out during the rain should be shipped to foreign markets, for it would do Oregon incalculable injury hereafter, for although the kernel is sound and good, still the fuzzy end of the grain looks black as if it had been smutty, and some of it looks shriveled and black. As the wheat has been tried and proves to make excellent flour, it all ought to be ground up in our State and only the good shipped. This year was an extraordinary year for wheat. There were more [illegible] than any previous year, and if they [illegible] would only [illegible] somewhere near it what a glorious time there would be in Oregon.

Money is very scarce [illegible] their wheat at the present prices, expecting a rise as the river opens.

We have also heard of [illegible] lots received here which were considered bad and rejected, but the injury at present [illegible] extensive and it [illegible] hoped that shippers [illegible] guarded that the [illegible] reputation which Oregon wheat has attained in the markets of the world will not be at all [illegible]. That it may not be, is why we have mentioned this [illegible] here.

In [illegible], the receipts of the new crop have been comparatively light and prices have kept up well for the season, though not high, dealers still paying 40@43 cents per bushel including sacks, while some inferior lots in bulk have sold for 24 cents. Bacon is still in light supply and with a fair demand our former quotations are well sustained. Eggs firm at 35 cents per dozen. Butter unchanged and weak. Other products exhibit no fluctuation.

EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

[illegible] Addresses the United States.

[illegible] October 1.—A New Orleans special gives [illegible] of a four-column address to the United [illegible] Gov. Kellogg to-day. It is an elab[orate] [illegible] of his administration from all charges [illegible] present no new points. He asserts he [illegible] elected and in proof says the negro vote [illegible] added to that of 5,000 to 10,000 white [illegible] is larger than that of the disfranchised [illegible]. He repeats his former statement that his [administr]ation cost $7,000,000 less than Warmoth's [illegible] 000,000 less than that of the preceding Gov[illegible] that he has reduced the State debt $900,000 in [illegible] and the rate of taxation one half. He [illegible] the Republican party in Louisiana is will[ing] [to be] judged by the verdict of the coming elec[tion] [p]rovided it can be held without intimidation [illegible] and he appeals to Northern Republi[cans] who have listened to denunciations of his ad[ministration] [illegible] to bear in mind that they come from [illegible] who hate Republican principles everywhere [illegible] his willingness to resign if it was simp[ly] [a p]ersonal matter, but believes there is a prin[ciple] involved which makes it his duty to remain [at his] post.

"Pinch" Pinched.

[NEW] YORK, October 1.—A New Orleans dispatch [says] "The Republican State Central Committee [ag]reed to the compromise effected by the Com[illegible] Committee. Pinchback [illegible] the ratif[ication] but was largely outvoted. The [illegible] Committee will meet to consider the [illegible]"

Acting like Rational [illegible]

[NEW] ORLEANS, October 1.—The Republican Con[vention] of Orleans Parish will be held October 12th. [The Re]publican State Central Committee last eve[ning] ratified the conference [illegible] with an [amend]ment that in case of a vacancy from death or [illegible] cause of a Republican [illegible] of the [illegible] board a pledge should be given that a Re[publican] can be selected by the Republican Committee [for] each vacancy—the same rule to apply to the [Conser]vatives. The Conservative Committee [illegible] 5th to take action on the agreement of the [illegible]

[NEW Y]ORK, October 1.—The P. M. S. S. Co. have a dispatch stating that the sidewheel steam[er] [illegible] while undergoing repairs at Aberdeen [illegible] from Hongkong, was blown ashore in the [typh]oon but was not sinking or leaking. The [illegible] also states that she will come off at the [ne]xt high water. Another dispatch from [Hongk]ong states that in the typhoon of the 21st, [steam]er Alaska was blown ashore and is now on [illegible]. Up to the present time she has made no [water] and it is hoped she may be got off. The [illegible] worth $500,000. Insured.

Railway Casualty.

[illegible] Sept. 30.—A collision [illegible] to-day [on the] Allegheny Valley Railroad east of New [illegible], Pa., between the mail train going east, [and a] freight train going west. James Esler, engi[neer] [illegible] of the mail train, and a [illegible] Henry Doyle were killed. Henry Weatz, [illegible] was fatally injured, and J. M. [illegible] master, John [illegible] Garrison, passenger, were seriously injured. [The ba]ggage car containing [illegible] mail and ex[press] matter was burned.

Murder and Attempt at Suicide.

[CINCI]NNATI, Sept. 30.—Mrs. Julia Perkins, of this [city, cu]t the throat of her infant daughter and [made] an ineffectual attempt to kill herself in the [same w]ay. Domestic trouble is the alleged [cause].

[illegible] Sentenced to [illegible]

[illegible] Sept. 30.—Louis Wagner, the Isle of Shoals [murd]erer, is sentenced to be hanged the last Friday [in Jan]uary, the Governor of Maine having finally [decid]ed to carry out the recommendation of the [C]ouncil.

Arrived Safe.

[PORT]LAND, Me., Sept. 30.—The missing steamer [New] York, of the International line, arrived here, having put into Machias and Penob[scot] to [escape] a severe storm.

The Baker City Herald office has changed hands and from it will be issued hereafter a Republican paper under the control, as our correspondent says, of Colonel James of the Webfoot Valley. Which is W. S. James.

The Directors of the Union County Agricultural Society have levied an assessment of twenty per cent on the entire capital stock of said incorporation. They are determined to pay all indebtedness of the Society at once and have money enough on hand to set out some two thousand poplar trees on the grounds.

A man came to Salem last Monday from Albany and registered himself at the hotel as Thomas J. Watson. On Monday evening about [illegible] o'clock, says the Statesman, apparently unwell. He asked for a bed, for which he paid in advance, and was at once shown his room. Shortly afterwards he called for a glass of water, which was furnished him, this being the last time he was seen alive. The following day the chambermaid entered the room, and noticing him lying on the bed, supposed him asleep and did not disturb him, and not until Wednesday morning was the awful truth known, that the slumberer was sleeping the sleep of death. In his pockets were found seventy five cents in money, two knives and a letter from a brother, F. J. Watson, of Mount Vernon, Illinois, urging him to return home, the epistle bearing date of July last. No other papers were found on his person. No cause is assigned for the rash deed, but it is supposed to be a depression of spirits.
